Our Story

Dolan Funeral Home was established in 1974 by James “Jim” Dolan Sr. He was working in Lowell as a Licensed Funeral Director and Embalmer in the 60’s & early 70’s. He noticed the funeral homes in the area were having difficulties meeting the needs of the families. The parking lots were either too small or had no organization to them. The buildings had small hallways and small viewing rooms. Handicapped access was not adequate. Jim Dolan Sr. wanted a better way to serve families. He had a chance to purchase a large lot located in Chelmsford just outside of Lowell and his dream of being able to provide ample room for multiple families became a reality. Word quickly spread and families came from Lowell, Westford, Tyngsborough, Dunstable, Dracut and Chelmsford. Jim Dolan Sr. focused all of his energy on establishing a funeral home that became known for meeting the needs of families throughout the Merrimack Valley with compassion and excellence.

Today his son, James “Jim” Dolan II continues to successfully own and operate the Dolan Funeral Home. Some of the success of Dolan Funeral Home belongs to the fact that Dolan Funeral Home’s primary focus is to serve the diverse community which is comprised of diverse religions, beliefs and philosophies. The second generation at Dolan Funeral Home continues to serve the ever-changing diverse community of the Greater Lowell Area in which Jim Dolan Sr. served with respect since 1974.

The future of the Dolan Funeral Home is secure; as third generation, Andrew Dolan, became a licensed funeral director in July 2020. Andrew is a graduate of Chelmsford High School with the Class of 2017, completed an Associate Degree in Mortuary Science from Commonwealth Institute of Houston, TX, and is a graduate of UMass Amherst Isenberg School of Business with a Bachelor in Science in Management.

N. Use of Facilities and Staff for Food & Beverage Convenience

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts now allows food and non-alcoholic beverages in funeral homes with several unique restrictions. Some of these restrictions are the following: food and beverages shall be served in an area separate and apart from where dead human bodies are displayed; any food and beverages served in connection with any burial or funeral must be provided by a third party vendor or supplier meeting the requirements of 105 CMR 590; and the provision of food and beverages served in connection with any burial or funeral must be treated as a "cash advance item" and no Licensed Funeral Establishment shall bill or cause to be billed, the cost for the food and beverages unless the net amount billed for it by the Licensed Funeral Establishment is the same amount as is billed the Licensed Funeral Establishment by the third party vendor or supplier, this shall not bar Funeral Establishments from directly charging for facility usage and cleaning.

A Facility Usage and Cleaning Charge will occur due to the changes of State regulations and the mobility of the food throughout the funeral home. To further clarify this charge occurs when a person or a third party caterer brings food and/or beverages into the building with the intent of distribution for family and friends attending the services. Food and beverage items to be used for personal consumption (ie a person brings into the building his/her own cup of coffee) or ceremonial purposes as a part of the funeral service do not apply to the Facility Usage and Cleaning charge.

1. Facility Usage & Cleaning (will be charged if food is available for family) $160
2. Tables & Linens with Customized Arrangement of Room $ 65 per Table
3. Separate Room for Serving Food (excluding kitchenette, which is no charge) $300

We have a list of our preferred caterers. We request, but do not require when selecting a caterer to use one on our list. There are several advantages to using one of these caterers: known quality and value, customized menus that will be appropriate for the service you selected for your loved one, and special reduced pricing.
